

Approved Date: April 2013*Review Date: Summer 2016*Scope

The Kingsmead School is committed to a policy of protecting the rights and freedoms of individuals with respect to the processing of their personal data.

This policy covers all data collected from external agencies, other schools and kept internally as part of the young persons school record. Data is only kept for the purpose of relevant business use. It covers data held electronically as well as paper records. It also covers work completed by students during education programmes including qualification portfolios.

Relevant Policies:

- Safeguarding policy
- School Records Policy
- Confidentiality Policy
- Admission and Induction Procedures.
- School Website Policy

The Kingsmead School also adopts the Derby City Council Data Protection Policy

Policy Statement

In line with the Data Protection Act (1998), data will be processed according to the following principles:

- Personal data shall be processed fairly and lawfully
- Personal data shall be held only for one or more specified and lawful purposes and shall not be further processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or purposes.
- Personal data shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose for which it is processed.
- Personal data shall be accurate and where necessary kept up to date
- Personal data processed for any purpose shall not be kept for longer than is necessary.
- Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of the data subject under the data protection act.
- Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of the data.

Use of Data

Access to data is only granted to relevant staff of The Kingsmead School and information will not be disclosed to any other party without the express permission of the individual or organisation that has supplied the data. The only exception to this is where required by law eg requests from the police or courts or should there be a significant child protection issue – see Confidentiality Policy and Safeguarding Policy.

The Data Protection Act (1998) includes provision for individuals and organisations to access data stored about them by making a formal subject access request – see school records policy.

Information will be released to official qualification awarding bodies and access granted to their officers but only to the extent required to register and accredit qualifications.

Data Retention

In accordance with the Data Protection Act (1998) and Derby City Document Retention Schedule data will not be retained for longer than necessary. The time of retention will be determined by various factors. See School Records Policy and Derby City Document Retention Schedule.

Data Security

All data held electronically is backed up daily to avoid problems in the case of technical faults. When access to computers is required for repair The Kingsmead School will only use reputable firms and will seek assurance of the security of data during and after the access period.

Where access to personal data of any kind is granted to any external agency for example external agencies delivering education to young people, a confidentiality statement will be signed by the external agency to ensure compliance with pupil confidentiality and the safeguarding of young people at all times.

Paper records are held in lockable cabinets to prevent unauthorised access.

All staff have individual passwords and restricted access to data dependant on roles and responsibilities to ensure data is accessed appropriately.
