

COVID-19 ANNEX Behaviour Policy

All pupils and parents will be required to sign the new home school agreement while any social distancing measures are required.

If pupils do not comply with the additional measures put in places to keep pupils and staff safe, preventing the spread of any potential infection and respecting the rules regarding social distancing may result in an alternative education offer, which could include remote learning.